9 Comprehension

Prep Up

Look at the picture given below. What do you notice? Write down three things that you can observe.

children are playing There are many trees A boy is sitting on a swing

Learning Points

- Comprehension Passage
- Comprehension Poem

COMPREHENSION PASSAGE

Practice Time

A. Read the passage and answer the following questions.

The Nohara family keeps fit by jogging every Sunday morning. They do this at a stadium about three blocks away from their flat. It is usually crowded on Saturdays and Sundays, except on rainy days. Some people jog at the stadium early in the morning when the air is cool and fresh.

Mr. and Mrs. Nohara start by running at a slow, comfortable pace. They jog five rounds. When they feel out of breath, they slow down to recover. They walk for a few minutes before they jog again.

Shinchan and his younger sister Himawari are always behind their parents . After jogging for two months, they have slimmed down. They even look healthy and fit.

1. Answer these questions.

(i) What does the Nohara family do to keep fit?

(a) jogging (b) eating healthy food

(c) sleeping (d) watching TV

(ii) How many rounds do they jog everyday?

(a) three (b) four

(c) five (d) six

(iii) Why do some people jog early in the morning?

Thinking Skills

Some people jog early in the morning because the air is cool and fresh.

(d) What do Mr. and Mrs. Nohara do when they are tired?

when they feel out of breath. they slow down to recover.

(e) How do their children benefit from jogging?

Their children have slimmed down and look healthy and fit.

(f) What do you do with your family on Sunday?

Experiential Learning

I spend time with my family on sunday. we go for outings and enjoy together.

B. Read the passage carefully and answer the following questions.

Two friends, Vir and Navya, decided to go skiing during their winter holidays. Their school organized the excursion and the trip

