St. Andrews Scots School

Adjacent Navniti Apartment, Patparganj, Delhi – 110092
Class VI(Session: 2026-2027)
Worksheet-8

Subject: Science | Chapter: 8 (A journey through the states of water)

Q.1. Define these terms:

a) Evaporation
b) Melting
c) Precipitation
d) Condensation

Q.2. One word answers:-

a) What is the process called when water cools and turns back into ice?
b) What is the falling of water, snow or hail from the sky called?
c) Tiny water droplets gather together in the sky to form?
d) What action we must take to protect our limited freshwater sources?
e) Does water evaporate faster or slower on a windy day?

Q.3 True/False:-

a) Clouds are formed by precipitation. _____
b) Freezing occurs when liquid water is heated to high temperature. _____
c) Ice floats on water. _____
d) Condensation occurs when water vapour cools._____

Q.4. Answer the following questions:

a) Explain the entire water cycle with diagrams, including the process of evaporation, condensation, precipitation and collection.
b) How does the water cycle help in maintaining the Earth's water supply?
c) How does evaporation help cool down your body when you sweat?

Edit with WPS Office