

Then he caught Jumbo's nose and began to pull.

'Please, please, leave my nose,' begged Jumbo. But Coco did not listen. Suddenly, Skippy saw what was going on. 'Oh, I must help Jumbo!' she said to herself and flew towards them.

Skippy covered Coco's eyes with her wings. Coco was shocked and he let go of Jumbo's nose. But by then, poor Jumbo's nose was already very long. It almost touched his toes! From that time, elephants have long noses; they are called trunks.

terrible    very bad

Value pick

Which sentence tells us that a person's anger can harm others?

About the passage

A. Number the sentences in the correct order from 1 to 5. One has been done for you.

- |  |                                |
|--|--------------------------------|
| 1. Coco got angry.                         | <input type="text" value="2"/> |
| 2. Skippy decided to help Jumbo.           | <input type="text" value="4"/> |
| 3. Jumbo went away from the river.         | <input type="text" value="3"/> |
| 4. Jumbo went to the river to drink water. | <input type="text" value="1"/> |
| 5. Jumbo came back when Coco was asleep.   | <input type="text" value="5"/> |

B. Answer these questions.

1. How were the elephants and crocodiles different a long time ago?
2. Why did lakes and rivers dry up in the jungle?
3. What did Skippy do to make Coco angry?
4. Why did Coco pull Jumbo's nose?
5. Circle the words you can use to describe Coco.

helpful    selfish    cheerful    ill-tempered    unkind

C. Think and say.

Skippy came to stop Coco from pulling Jumbo's nose. What would happen if Skippy did not come?

Build words

Read this sentence.

- Jumbo saw a firefly in the forest.

The word firefly is made up of two words—

- fire + fly = firefly

Sometimes two words join together to form a new word.

Join the words to get new words.

1. bed + room bedroom
2. foot + ball football
3. home + work homework
4. play + ground playground
5. class + room classroom

Say it right

A. Listen to and say these words aloud.

• bear pear tear

• care dare share

• fair hair stair

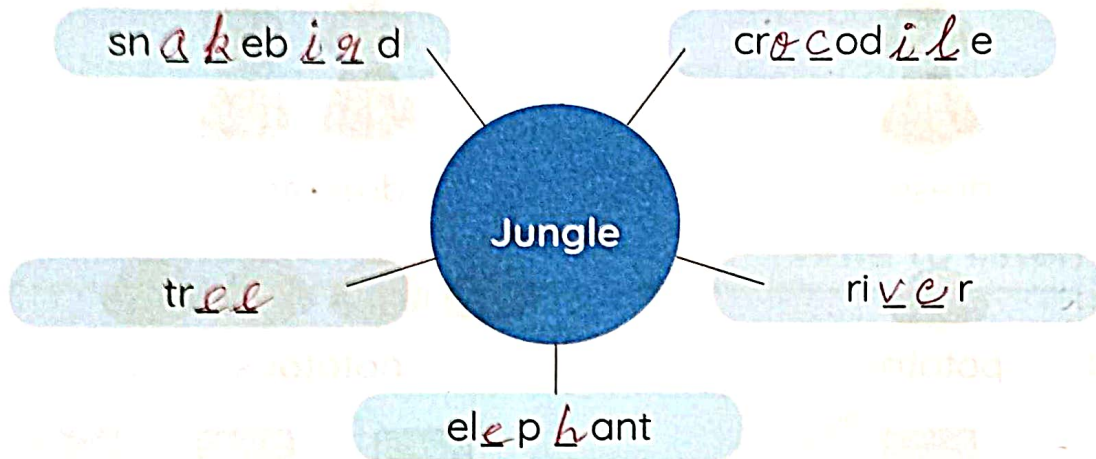

B. Have fun with sounds by saying these sentences aloud.

There's a fair bear on the stair eating a pear. Please share.

Spell it right

Fill in the blanks to complete this mind map of the jungle in the story.

Grammar

One and many

Draw one feather in box A.

Draw two feathers in box B.

We use feather when we talk about one feather. We use feathers when there is more than one feather. You have learnt that we add -s to some naming words which are more than one.

A	B

